

International Foundation for the Law of the Sea

The International Foundation for the Law of the Sea will hold its

14th Summer Academy at the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea in Hamburg from 9 August to 4 September 2020.

The Summer Academy is a centre of excellence for studies of both International Law of the Sea and Maritime Law and includes related topics of economic and natural sciences. It brings together a prestigious faculty from among the judges of the Tribunal, professors and professionals from the maritime field with a dedicated group of some 35 highly motivated participants from around the world. For further information, please refer to “Summer Academy in a Nutshell” at <https://www.iflos.org/wp-content/uploads/20200204-SumAc-in-a-nutshell-final.pdf>

As a rule, applicants should hold a masters degree (LL.M or equivalent). A limited number of scholarships and travel grants will be available. Subject to availability of places, exceptions may be considered for master students or professionals in the maritime field and, in rare cases, for excellent undergraduates focusing on Law of the Sea or Maritime Law.

Admission requirements and Scholarship details alongside FAQs are also available at <http://www.iflos.org/summer-academy/overview/>.

Applications are invited at <http://www.iflos.org/summer-academy/the-current-session/application/>; the application period for electronic applications and registration will expire on 31 March and documents by mail will be accepted until 10 April 2020 (prior electronic clearance provided).

For further communication and enquiries please contact the Foundation at summeracademy@iflos.org.
