

The Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law organizes the "CEE Vienna International Tax Law SUMMER SCHOOL" for full-time students from the Central Eastern European (CEE) area at the WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business).

This program comprises a week of intensive work on scientific topics, provided by professors and experienced research associates, covering the practice of double tax treaties and European tax law. The English program is directed at full-time students from CEE countries, who have knowledge of the national laws of their home countries and are interested in practicing tax law after finalizing their studies. The main target group is students who are already well advanced in their studies and close to graduation or who are pursuing PhD studies. The program is limited to approximately 30 students in order to ensure high quality. Renowned partners from the business community support the program.

Full-time students from the CEE area are invited to apply for the program - by April 30, 2021 at the latest. The participation fee amounts to EUR 2,000.--, full-time students and students employed as university teaching and/or research assistants may apply for a "fee waiver". A subsidy for travel expenses may be granted upon request. Participants are asked for a non-reimbursable handling charge of EUR 50.--. Please find further details on the application process, waiver procedure and recommendations for hotels at www.wu.ac.at/taxlaw.
