

Call for Applications

The University of Rijeka, Faculty of Law invites doctoral candidates in law and related fields to participate in RIDOC 2026: Rijeka Doctoral Conference.

 Present • Discuss • Connect RIDOC provides a platform for doctoral researchers to present and discuss their preliminary research findings with an international academic community and legal practitioners. It offers an opportunity to receive valuable feedback, exchange ideas, test research hypotheses, and develop international scholarly networks.

 The conference will feature thematic sessions chaired by distinguished academics and practitioners who will provide comments and guidance on the presented research.

 Format: Hybrid (onsite and online)

 Working language: English

 Application • Selection All applications will be reviewed by an international Programme Committee composed of recognised academics.

Application requirements:

- title of the research topic and an abstract (approximately 500 words),
- CV in Europass format,
- information about the institution and doctoral programme/school,
- name of the doctoral supervisor.

 Send applications to: ridoc@pravri.uniri.hr

Application deadline: 30 September 2026

 Notification of results: 20 October 2026

Conference date: 7 December 2026

 Participants will be provided with lunch and refreshments during the conference. A traditional RIDOC evening social gathering will also be organised for informal networking and exchange.

✦ Join RIDOC 2026 and present your doctoral research to an international community of emerging legal scholars! ✦
