

University of Rijeka, Faculty of Law and

Croatian Comparative Law Association jointly present

Rijeka lectures in comparative law

A scientific community forum bringing speakers from around the world to discuss current developments in comparative law.

Dr. Neža Kogovšek
Šalamon

19 October 2026, 14 h, Auditorium IV

Artificial Intelligence in the Judiciary

Dr. Neža Kogovšek Šalamon is Vice President of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Slovenia and a Slovenian legal expert. She earned her undergraduate and doctoral degrees from the Faculty of Law at the University of Ljubljana, Slovenia, and also holds an LL.M. from the University of Notre Dame School of Law in the United States. She teaches law at the University of Primorska in Koper, Slovenia. Her research interests include fundamental rights, migration and asylum law, citizenship, non-discrimination and equality, and constitutional law more broadly.

This lecture has been realised in cooperation with the Institute of European and Comparative Law and within the NextGenerationEU project "Legal and Ethical Implications of the Dehumanisation of the Justice and Public Administration through Legal Technology – TECHNO-IUS" (uniri-mzi-25-31)

Funded by the European Union
NextGenerationEU

Faculty of Law

Hahlić 6, HR-51000 Rijeka
www.pravri.uniri.hr